

Doolough – Fishing Guide

Almost all the salmon fishing on Doolough is around the edges, sometimes only a boat length or two off the shore line. The lower end, however, can produce a fish well out from the shore. Ideally, it is best to fish in c.8-12ft of water. Watch out for the sunk rock on the west shore and don't try to go inside the island at the top.