

Finlough – Fishing Guide

Just about any part of Finlough can produce a salmon. And just about any wind direction is fine, though a straight westerly makes for fickle drifts. Roughly 90% of the fish will be tagged. The lower end of the lake around the reeds can be good for sea trout. Under no circumstances put the boat through the stream at the head of the lake - hold off to the side and fish it like a river.