

Delphi Events Calendar – What's on in June

We do love to start a month off with a Bank Holiday Bang here in the west of Ireland. Once again it's time to see what's happening in the Galway, Connemara and Southwest Mayo region. Lots going on as per usual at this time of year and something guaranteed to suit everyone.

Saturday 31st to Monday 3rd Burrishoole Walking Festival

This 3 day Walking Festival has gone from strength to strength in the last 25 years. It celebrates all that's beautiful to see in the area and caters for all abilities. Full itinerary at...

<http://www.burrishoolewalkfest.net/index.php/itinerary>

Friday 13th to Sunday 15th Westport Folk & Bluegrass Festival

If you love folk and bluegrass then the 7th annual festival will definitely be your thing. This showcases the best of the best and promises a fantastic line-up as usual...see...

<http://westportfolkandbluegrass.com/>

Saturday 14th to Sunday 22nd Galway Bike Festival

A great opportunity to get on your bike and have great fun while you're at it. Family friendly and catering for abilities. Go to...

<https://www.facebook.com/pages/Galway-Bike-Festival/123664367709106>

Sunday 15th to Sunday 22nd The Galway Sessions

The Galway Sessions 2014 is a weeklong event which taps into & showcases the unique & vibrant culture & heritage of Galway & its environs. For the full line-up see...

<http://www.galwaysessions.com/>

Saturday 28th & Sunday 29th Westport Festival of Food & Music (Westport House)

Year three of this festival promises to be every bit as good as previous years...we'll let the line-up speak for itself...see...

<http://www.westportfestival.com/>

June is a great month for getting out there and enjoying the landscape. Paul Phelan, our walking expert Guide has a couple of scheduled walks this month that may take your fancy.

See <http://www.walkconnemara.com/calendar.html>

If beautiful gardens are your 'thing' you'll know June is a great time of year to indulge your senses - take a look at Brigit's Garden www.brigitsgarden.ie and of course the wonderful walled gardens at Kylemore Abbey www.kylemoreabbeytourism.ie